Administrative Notes

- The girls' section sessions are reserved for girls aged 6 to 15; those older join the women's section under its dedicated program.
- Girls enrolled in the Qur'an memorization circles receive a discounted rate to join the intensive courses in handicrafts and manual skills.
- Each student joins one of the two sessions, morning or evening, according to preference and availability.
- Congregational prayer at the association's premises takes place during sessions; session blocks are adjusted whenever prayer times shift and during Ramadan.
- The circles continue during the five mid-term breaks with special programs, details of which will be announced in due time.
